College of Science
Request to Apply Course Withdrawal Policy
(revised Fall 2017)

Instructions: University Course Withdrawal Policy allows currently enrolled students to designate a course status of Course Withdrawn (CW) for up to a maximum of three (3) courses. This request must be turned into the College of Science Dean's office by the last day of classes of the term enrolled for the course(s). You must schedule an appointment with your academic advisor to process this request. Course(s) with a status of CW will appear on Hokie Spa after final grades and on your transcript with a W grade, but will not count in your GPA hours nor in any GPA calculations. You are eligible to apply only the unused portion CW Policy.

Part I: Before completing Part II & III, answer the following questions:

- Did you use Late Course Withdrawal previously? YES NO
- If yes, circle the number of courses previously withdrawn: 1 2 3
- Do you currently have any holds on your account? YES NO
  (This form cannot be processed until they're removed.)

Part II: Apply Course Withdrawal Status to the following course(s):

	CRN	Abbreviation (e.g., MATH)	Course Number	Credit Hours
(1)	_____	_____	_____	_____
(2)	_____	_____	_____	_____

Part III: Explanation and Verification
